

Southwest Florida Archaeological Society (SWFAS)

OUR 41st YEAR

October 2021 ZOOM Newsletter

<http://swflarchaeology.org/>

This is our first SWFAS Zoom Newsletter of the 2021-2022 season. We will be continuing the Zoom Newsletter through May 2022. We hope to be able to resume our in-person presentations for the 2022-2023 season and that the Zoom meetings and the videos we present here will be of interest to you. This format also enables us to present a wider range of archaeological and historical topics to you.

OCTOBER VIRTUAL MEETINGS:

CELEBRATION, REFLECTION, AND ANTICIPATION: 100 VOLUMES OF THE FLORIDA HISTORICAL QUARTERLY

October 11, Monday, 6:30 - 8:00 pm

The 9th Annual Jerrell H. Shofner Lecture Series on Florida History and Culture features four esteemed journal editors discussing topics ranging from the role of the discipline of history in the 21st century, to the future of history journals, and the study of history in difficult times. Sponsored by the Florida Humanities

Presented By: Claire Strom, Craig Friend, Randal Hall, Alex Lichtenstein - editors and former editors of American Historical Review

Register at: https://ucf.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_nsy5OIGwQ02R8w3v7iyang

VINTAGE FLORIDA: HIDDEN HISTORY OF FLORIDA

October 14, Thursday, 1:00 - 2:00 pm

Presented By: James Clark, Senior Lecturer, University of Central Florida History Department

Sponsored by Florida Humanities

Information at: <https://floridahumanities.org/event/vintage-florida-hidden-history-of-florida/>

Event Contact: Rebecca Campbell at 352-742-6090 or rcampbell@tares.org

Email Rebecca Campbell for the registration link.

THINGS THAT GO BUMP IN THE NIGHT: HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGY OF ALL YOUR FAVORITE MONSTERS

October 14, Thursday, 7:00 – 8:00 pm

Join us in kicking off our Fall Lecture Series with a talk about the history and archaeology of classic monsters such as vampires, mermaids, werewolves, and more!

Sponsored by the Florida Public Archaeology Network (FPAN)

Information at:

<http://flpublicarchaeology.org/nerc/eventDetail.php?eventID=1043&eventDate=10/14/2021>

Register at:

https://flaglercollege.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZeldOqvjwHdCi6hPnfuZa_nHGmf9PiYs?fbclid=IwAR3uKnX1rogGThzAIYi17aLsu-FsOd94AI8vHJVfWmsVvAYLxxJGaVmW5_A

COLONIAL ENCOUNTERS ON THE CARIBBEAN FRONTIER: ARCHAEOLOGY AT LASOYE 2, DOMINICA

October 20, Wednesday, 6:00 pm

In 2017, Hurricane Maria exposed evidence of a colonial-era settlement on the island of Dominica. The site is thought to be an informal European trading complex or pirate encampment established in the 16th century, abandoned in the 18th century, and reoccupied by the French in the 1740's.

Presented by Dr. Diane Wallman, Associate Professor of Anthropology at USF and Director of the USF Historical Archaeology Laboratory

Sponsored by Time Sifters Archaeological Society

Information at: <http://www.timesifters.org/>

Register at: <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZUode-orDgqH9ZoPp6zQiNYe2eb6GekioQ6>

ZOOM INTO ARCHAEOLOGY: DRAWN TO ARCHAEOLOGY

October 21, Thursday, 3:30 - 4:30 pm

In a world of 3D scanning, macro lenses, and digital site visits, how can illustration still be a useful skill? If you want to learn the basics of drawing artifacts, biofacts, and more, join this scientific illustration workshop! To participate, you will need graph paper, a ruler or other straight edge, seamstress tape, a pencil, and something to draw.

Presented by FPAN Public Archaeologist Malachi Fenn

Sponsored by FPAN

Register at: <https://uwf.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYrduGgrzIvH9flvx40ngadibP6g6872psy>

Information at: <http://flpublicarchaeology.org/nwrc/eventDetail.php?eventID=2139&eventDate=2021-10-21>

REMEMBER: If you can't watch the video at the time listed, register anyway and many of them will stream the video for the next few weeks. You can then watch it at your convenience but only if you have already registered.

ANYTIME VIDEOS

A HISTORY NO LONGER SILENCED: ANGOLA ON THE MANATEE RIVER

By Dr. Uzi Baram, Professor of Anthropology, Director of the New College Public Archaeology Lab, New College of Florida

Sponsored by Time Sifters

Go to: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=774EghNolfM>

THE HISTORIC STRANAHAN HOUSE ON LAS OLAS BOULEVARD, FT. LAUDERDALE

A guided tour of this historic house located on an archaeological site 8BD259 excavated in 1989 by Bob Carr.

This was one of the earliest structures in Ft. Lauderdale. It was the post office, and a trading post in which Frank Stranahan traded with the Seminoles. Add it to your list of sites to see in Ft. Lauderdale.

Hosted by FPAN Intern Jillian Krickovich,
Sponsored by Southeast Regional Center of FPAN

Go to: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JgUWJw7zXtg>

SEMINOLE WARS ARCHAEOLOGY: THE BATTLE OF WAHOO SWAMP

Hosted by Sean Norman, Gulf Archaeological Research Institute
Sponsored by the St. Augustine Archaeological Association

Go to: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8KjiwztnYKE&cz/us>